

Cooperative Agreement Between
Nha Trang University and University of Ulsan

In order to advance friendly relations between Vietnam and Korea, Nha Trang University and University of Ulsan join in the following agreement on the promotion of educational and academic exchanges between the two institutions.

Both institutions will make every reasonable effort to encourage direct contact, educational and research cooperation between their constituents, including students, faculty members, departments, and research institutes, to the extent that they are able, under provisions of this agreement, and endeavor to cooperate in the fields with which both institutions are concerned. Within spheres that are mutually agreed to, these institutions agree on the following general forms of cooperation:

1. Joint educational and research activities
2. Exchange of academic materials and academic publications
3. Exchange of faculty members for research, lectures, and discussions
4. Exchange of graduate and undergraduate students for study and research
5. Exchange of students for broader educational and cultural activities

Themes of joint activity and the conditions for using the results achieved and arrangements for visits, student exchanges, and other forms of cooperation will be negotiated for each specific case.

Both institutions understand that all financial arrangements should be negotiated and will depend upon the availability of funds.

This agreement will be effective from the date of signature for an initial period of five years. Thereafter it shall be automatically extended for an additional period of five years at each expiration date unless either party provides written notice to terminate the agreement a minimum of six months prior to the expiration date.
